OGDEN, UTAH. - JUNE 26, 1933.

JOYOUS "GRANDMA" PARTY

Mrs. Frank J. Cannon Entertains and Honors Her Mother's Friends.

Damage Suit of Kate Bridwell Anderson Against B. G. W. Kelly-Bassett Nuptials.

The beautiful home of ex-Senator Frank J. Cannon, situated on Twenty-first street, was the scene of a most delightful and long to be remembered "grandma's party" yesterday. There were present 35 "grandmas" who were received and entertained by Mrs. F. J. Cannon, assisted by several young lady friends. Carriages were sent to the homes of all the guests of honor from Ogden, bringing them to the scene of pleasure and those from Salt Lake were met at the depot and taken to the Cannon home. The day was spent most delightfully in feasting, singing, social chat, and making merry in many other ways. Mrs. Cannon has given these parties annually for a number of years past, inviting all the associates and friends of her honored mother, Mrs. Martha H. Brown, making their hearts to rejoice in their declining years, when the trials of life and years have whitened their locks. Especially were the guests delighted yesterday with the sweet music discoursed by Miss Zannie Cannon, on the harp, and the happy greeting by Mr. Cannon. The first lady present yesterday was Mrs. Mary Black of Ogden, who Oct. 28, will celebrate her eighty-seventh birthday. This worthy lady is the proud possessor of one of the Gold Pioneer badges presented by the state, having come to Utah in 1847.

The "grandmas" as usual, declared the party given yesterday to be the most joyous of any Mrs. Cannon has given, and expressed the wish that Mrs. Cannon may live long to make their hearts rejoice. One aged "grandma" presented their beloved hostess with a pretty shoulder shawl of her own make, of which Mrs. Cannon is truly proud.

The invited guests at the "grandma party" yesterday were Mesdames Sarah Cannon, Eliza T. Cannon, Martha T. Cannon, Carrie Y. Cannon, Emily H. Cannon, Mary Alice Lambert, Mrs. Davis, J. L. Rawlins, W. M. Clayton, Emma E. Wells, Harriet M. Stringham, all of Salt Lake City, Martha H. Brown, Harriet C. Brown, Rose Canby, Mrs. Black, Charlotte Leavitt, Mary A. West, Sarah West, Ann Farr, Jane S. In the district court before Judge Rolapp the action brought by Mrs. Kate Bridwell Anderson of Salt Lake against the Rio Grande Western Railway company, is being heard. The plaintiff is represented by Judge O. W. Powers, and the defense by E. M. Benson Jr. The plaintiff claims damages in the sum of $15,000, alleged to be due for personal injuries. Mrs. Anderson was the first witness for the prosecution, she testified that Nov. 1932, she was riding on one of the defendant's trains coming into the Union Depot yards in this city, when the train struck a freight train loaded with sugar beets, the jar threw her against the window of the car seat injuring her internally and affecting her voice so that she cannot sing and follow her vocal profession as before.

Frank J. Cannon testified that he was on the same train when Mrs. Anderson was hurt and assisted in taking her from the train to the Reed hotel. Other witnesses were examined who testified to similar facts. The case will occupy several days.

Special Correspondence.
Monroe, Boxelder Co., June 24.—A shocking accident befell the 2-year-old babe of Mr. and Mrs. Lars Nielsen on Saturday. The little one was playing around a mare and colt in the yard of the house, and was either kicked or stepped upon by one of the other animals. No one saw the affair, but some children came along and, seeing the child lying unconscious, supposed it was dead, and ran in the house and told the mother. Mrs. Nielsen rushed out and picked her baby up and took it in the house and summoned assistance, but it was several hours before consciousness was restored. The child has not yet fully recovered from the effects of the blow.
